Major activities affecting case closing which are not reflected above, and matters pending, date of hearing or sale, and other action:

- Dane Field 10/29/2023 Defendants Apple Bank and Honda Aircraft do not dispute that Wing Spirit was defrauded, but both contend they did not play a role in that scheme. Apple Bank's own records show that it suspected the sale leaseback transaction as a money laundering scheme but participated in the transaction due to the financial strength of Honda who put forth its guaranty. The entire transaction appears to be a wire fraud and money laundering scheme orchestrated by Douglas Brennen as evidenced by a recent production of the Bank of Utah records which show that 2.9 million dollars was paid to Fastnet One LLC, a Company that appears to be owned and controlled by Brennen instead of being paid to Wing Spirit for the planes it sold.

A significant dispute has arisen regarding the $200,000 arranger fee charged by Honda Aircraft. The Trustee contends that the arranger fee included arranging the entire transaction including the $6,000,000 in worthless "fake notes" delivered to Wing Spirit. Honda contends that "arranger fee" was just for arranging a sale/leaseback, not the financing of the sale leaseback. It argues that its position is supported by the fact it received $4.5 million in "Fake Notes." The Trustee contends Honda's negligence caused damage to Wing Spirit and Honda. Although the case has complexity it appears that that Honda wanted to sell aircraft and it was willing to "arrange" whatever it took to sell those aircraft.

There is substantial delay in this case resulting from the Irish and Maltese Seraph companies refusing to accept service of process through their U.S. attorneys. The process server has sent a status request to the Hague on 10/24/23 to find out the status of service on the foreign defendants.

- Dane Field 9/26/2023 Honda motion to dismiss set for 12/15/23. Case is on hold waiting for service through the Hague.
- Dane Field 7/4/2023 Service through the Hague is delaying case. Discussions ongoing with Apple Bank about documents not produced in 2004 exam.
- Dane Field 6/2/2023 Additional sp. counsel hired to help with main adversary case. Sp. counsel working on amended complaint.
- Dane Field 3/29/2023 Sp. counsel working on responses to motion to dismiss and serving Seraph defendants via Hague.

- Dane Field 2/3/2023 Trail set in Pro Service adv. for 2/27/24.

- Dane Field 1/24/2023 Suit has been filed. All Seraph entities sued have to be served through the Hague in Malta if they refuse to answer via regular service. This could take up to six months.

- Dane Field 10/26/2022 In mid-2019 the debtor Wing Spirit signed two agreements with Honda Aircraft to purchase up to 15 small aircraft to be used for inter-island medical transportation. Four of the aircraft were purchased by and title was transferred to Wing Spirit in 2019. In connection with that transaction Wing Spirit transferred $21,895,800 to Honda and took possession of four aircraft. Wing Spirit then needed operating capital, so it contacted Honda who arranged for a complex four party lease / purchase transaction whereby a trust would acquire 7 Honda aircraft, lease them to Honda and who would sublease them to Wing Spirit and Wing Spirit would get back the $21,895,800 less two charges by Honda, being a $200,000 transaction fee and a $871,333 lease deposit.

The day before closing of the transaction, however, Wing Spirit was advised it was going to receive $6,000,000 of the proceeds via four short term promissory notes, notes which turned out to be fraudulent and issued by a non-existent entity. Wing Spirit never received a penny of payment on those notes. Consequently, Wing Spirit was forced to file this bankruptcy case. There are multiple claims and causes of action the Trustee intends to pursue against the parties to the transaction including fraudulent transfer claims, breach of fiduciary duty claims, negligence and RICO claims.

We are working on final revisions of a complaint. The Complaint will be filed in November, 2022.

Motion to Approve Settlement Agreement Between Trustee and Capitol Consultants Of Hawaii LLP Regarding Claims under Bankruptcy Code Section 547(b) filed..

- Dane Field 7/8/2022 Special counsel is working on draft complaint related to the fraudulent transfer of Wing Spirit's air fleet.

- Dane Field 5/2/2022 Due to discovery of a conflict regarding HTH counsel we are amending the sharing agreement order to only provide non confidential information and will submit to HTH counsel for signature. If they will not sign we will have to request the court to amend the order.

- Dane Field 3/10/2022 Special counsel still reviewing documents and investigating claims in order to prepar compliant. Tax issue arose due to recapture of pre-petition State deduction. Tius to file motion to allow TT to pay taxes. CPA working on returns.

- Dane Field 10/28/2021 In mid-2019 the debtor Wing Spirit signed two agreements with Honda Aircraft to purchase up to 15 small aircraft to be used for inter-island medical transportation. Four of the aircraft were purchased by and title was transferred to Wing Spirit in 2019. In connection with that transaction Wing Spirit transferred $21,895,800 to Honda and took possession of four aircraft. Wing Spirit then needed operating capital, so it contacted Honda who arranged for a complex four party lease / purchase transaction whereby a trust would acquire 7 Honda aircraft, lease them to Honda and who would sublease them to Wing Spirit and Wing Spirit would get back the $21,895,800 less two charges by Honda, being a $200,000 transaction fee and a $871,333 lease deposit.

Wing Spirit never received a penny of payment on those notes. Consequently, Wing Spirit was forced to file this bankruptcy case.

There are multiple claims and causes of action the Trustee intends to pursue against the parties to the transaction including fraudulent transfer claims and RICO claims. The Trustee has made demands for payment, but to date has not received any response to those demands and intends to obtain further information via Rule 2004 before filing any claims.

- Dane Field 7/8/2021 Auction has been completed. Trustee has returned all the leased space including the Honolulu airport hanger and downtown office space.

- Dane Field 5/10/2021 Trustee has reach an agreement with DIP lender to sell personal property. Negotiations ongoing with DIP lender counsel Ted Petit regarding the pursuit of claims by the estate and special counsel.
